

The Brooklyn Grandparents' Coalition and Long Island University, Department of Social Work are pleased to co-sponsor a free forum for relative caregivers, and the teens and young adults that they are raising.

Featuring:

Keynote Speaker: Bryonn Bain

Long Island University's Visiting Professor and Scholar/Artist-in-Residence

Come learn about programs and options for youth that will help them navigate the transition to young adulthood and make healthy choices for their future. Attend an inspirational youth panel, browse an informative community resource fair, and participate in educational workshops.

Friday, Feb. 25, 2011

9:30 AM – 2 PM

Long Island University, Paramount Gym
Corner of DeKalb and Flatbush Aves, Brooklyn, NY

Pre-registration is required. Contact: John Watkins at JBFCS, Kinship Care Program, 718-676-4251 or jwatkins@jbfcs.org by Feb. 15, 2011.

Lunch and Metrocards will be provided.

